

INTERIOR DESIGN

News

On the Move: Recent Top Promotions and Hires

March 5, 2019

By Wilson Barlow

Architecture for Education

Architects Rachel Adams and Olivia Graf Doyle have taken the helm of Architecture for Education (A4E), thus transitioning the firm into a women-led organization. Founder Gaylaird Christopher will step down as president into the role of founding principal. A4E is based out of Los Angeles and has designed more than 100 schools throughout the western United States.